

Apply Now! Professional Development Opportunity for High School Teachers

Apply to attend our Big Island workshop on integrating Sustainable Seafood and Aquaculture into your classroom

The Center for Tropical and Subtropical Aquaculture (CTSA) is offering High School teachers a unique opportunity to participate in an all-expenses paid 3 day/2 night professional development workshop on Hawai'i Island in July.

Participating teachers will be provided with airfare, accommodations, meals, and transportation to and from the following activities:

Day 1: Visit aquaculture facilities / farms at NELHA

Day 2: Seminar and group workshop on integrating Sustainable Seafood and Aquaculture into HS classrooms including A.Q.U.A. curriculum review

Day 3: Visit more Big Island aquaculture facilities / farms

Participants must be current HS teachers in the State of Hawai'i

Deadline to apply is June 15, 2023. Space is limited!

Interested teachers should complete and submit the enclosed application form (also available at www.ctsa.org/about/ctsa_forms)

Please contact Dr. Cheng-Sheng Lee at chenglee@hawaii.edu or 956-3385 with any questions and/or for more information

Visit www.ctsa.org to learn more about CTSA

APPLICATION for Professional Development Workshop: Sustainable Seafood and Aquaculture in your classroom

Name: _____

School: _____ Location: _____

Subject(s) you teach: _____

Please list any experience in teaching seafood, aquaculture, and/or related subjects:

Why do you want to participate in this workshop?

What resources do you have to integrate this subject matter into your classroom teaching?

How many students do you teach per year? _____

Are you available to travel to the Big Island during the week of (Y/N for all that apply):

July 10: _____ July 17: _____

Participants must be current HS teachers in the State of Hawai'i

Please contact Dr. Cheng-Sheng Lee at chenglee@hawaii.edu or 956-3385 with any questions and/or for more information. Visit www.ctsa.org to learn more about CTSA